

Anderson, IN – U.S. Congressman Mike Pence congratulated Scout and Zoe's of Anderson on being one of 18 companies to earn the Indiana Small Business Development Center Network's Economic Development through Growth and Entrepreneurship (EDGE) Award. This award recognizes clients of the Indiana Economic Development Corporation's Small Business Development Centers' nine regional offices throughout the Hoosier state in two categories – emerging and established. Anderson's Scout and Zoe's has received the award in the established category.

"I want to congratulate Scout and Zoe's for earning the EDGE award," said Pence. "Their dedication and hard work has paid off, and Anderson is fortunate to be home to this growing small business."

###